is on the State docket, which will engage a portion of this week. We were more interested in the condition of McDowe'll county toan in the WARDLAW MCGILL, M. D., transactions of the court. The county has taken position as a tobacco region, the product confined principally to Sugar Hill and Marion townships. The latter probably had 100 acres in cultivation rather more than less. The other be-tween 75 and 80. Other townships will bring up the whole average to about 250 acres. The weed has been cut without injury from frost, and the cures are fairly good. The crop of Mr. J W. McCurry is regarded as exceptionably good, and the skill of that gentleman is universally admitted. A good deal of Mc-Dowell tobacco will be exhibited at our Fair; and with proper effort a good proportion of the crop may be turned to this market. The spirit of tobacco culture is abroad, and next year the production will be doubled. They already speak of warehouses in Marion. Apart from tobacco, the agricultura interests of the county exerts no special interest. The corn crop was good and the wheat was bad. There is little money in the county, for there was nothing to sell except tobacco.
